- Submitting annual reports in prescribed format

2.3. Filing a complaint

- If you believe that you have been subjected to sexual harassment, you should file a complaint with any of the internal committee members
- As per the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressed) Act, 2013, the complaint must be lodged within 3 months from the date of incident or from the date of the last incident. However, at Company we encourage employees to raise their complaint even after this timeline
- Provided that where such a complaint cannot be made in writing, the Presiding officer, or any member of the Internal Complaints Committee shall render all reasonable assistance to the person for filing the complaint in writing
- If the aggrieved person is unable to file the complaint in account of her incapacity, the following may do so on her behalf – Legal heir, co-worker, any person having knowledge of the incident
- The complainant will need to self-attest the written complaint

2.4. Investigating a complaint

- The committee will promptly investigate any allegation made in a free and fair manner
- This investigation may include private interviews with the complainant, the person alleged to have committed the offence and witnesses, if any. All notes from the investigation are kept strictly confidential.
- Once the complaint is received, before initiating the inquiry the committee may take steps to conciliate the complaint between the complainant and the respondent. This is only if requested by the complainant
- Resolution through conciliation happens within 2 weeks of receipt of complaint. The committee initiates formal inquiry in the following cases:
 - Conciliation not requested by complainant
 - Conciliation has not resulted in any settlement
 - Complainant tells the committee that terms of conciliation were not complied with

2.4.1. Manner of inquiry:

- Complainant should submit six self-attested copies the complaint along with supporting documents and names of the witnesses
- Upon receiving the complaint the committee sends 1 copy to the respondent within 7 working days with supporting documents and names of witnesses
